Dear Parents

I give you back your child(ren) the same child you confidently entrusted to our care. I give them back pounds heavier, inches taller, months wiser, more responsible, and more mature than they were.

Although they would have attained their growth despite us, it has been our pleasure and privilege to watch them personally unfold day by day and marvel at this splendid miracle of development.

I give them back reluctantly, for having spent months together in the narrow confines of crowded classroom, we have grown close, have become a part of each other, and shall always retain a little of each other.

We have lived, loved, laughed, played, studied, learned, and enriched our lives together this year. We wish it could go on indefinitely, but give them back we must.

Remember that we shall always be interested in your child and their destiny, wherever they go, whatever they do, whatever they become.

Best of luck!
